Learn while playing and play while learning!

The Time Traveller games platform is part of a new teaching method that leads to improved learning results by:

- maximizing student engagement and exposure to learning
- increasing long-term retention of knowledge acquired in the classroom

This method helps students learn and retain more, while providing them with a truly engaging gamified learning experience. Time Traveller does this by combining play and homework and has created the Virtual Playwork Gamified Learning Environment where students can learn while playing and play while learning!

Ahead Books is an English language publishing house with a fresh, innovative approach to ELT materials. In this catalogue, you will find a range of carefully developed language courses and supplementary materials which both teachers and learners are sure to find stimulating and effective.

Our materials are currently being used in many private language schools and institutions around the world, and we are always breaking into new markets. If you are interested in samples of our materials, we invite you to contact us via our website www.aheadbooks.com or through your local distributor. Visit our website for more details.

Unit objectives

Unit Objectives

- To learn and use new vocabulary about animals and describing
- To learn and use new grammar: to be - we / you / they are (affirmative, negative, questions and short answers)
- To learn and use functional language

Lesson 1 Objectives

- To learn the new words for describing: dirty, clean, wet, nice
- Review vocabulary from previous unit

Materials

- Audio CD1
- IWB software

Review

- Review the letters Ee, Ff, Gg, Hh from the previous unit by showing the pictures of the egg, fox, hen and asking pupils to say the letter they see.

New words

- Teach clean, dirty and wet by pointing to the pictures in the vocabulary section. Point to the dirty picture and say 'The dog is dirty'. Then write dirty on the board and ask pupils to repeat after you. Repeat the same process for clean and wet.

- Write nice on the board and say it aloud. Point to the picture in the Student's book and ask the pupils what the boy is doing. Ask 'Is the boy angry?' Then say 'The dog is hungry. The boy is nice. Explain the meaning of the word.

Story

- The kids are enjoying an ice cream, but as they eat they get in a mess. Zack's amazing jacket burns into action and cleans them up. It makes them very clean, but very wet!

Pre-reading

- Tell pupils to look at the pictures in the story and predict what will happen.
- Ask pupils to look at the pictures and follow the words as they listen.

Homework suggestions

box have an -s at the end. Explain that the -s shows that they are more than one. Repeat the words again, stressing the -s and ask pupils to repeat chorally after you.

- Read out the speech bubble 'What are they?' and ask pupils to repeat. Point to the picture of the elephants and tell pupils to say 'What are they?'. Explain what the word 'elephant' means. Then read the second speech bubble and read out loud 'They are elephants' and ask pupils to repeat.
- Tell pupils they will work in pairs to take turns asking and answering a question about the pictures.
- Go around the class helping where necessary.
- Ask for volunteer pairs to ask and answer in front of the class.

WRITING

15 Look at the pictures in Exercise 14 and answer.

- Tell pupils they have to look at the pictures in Exercise 14 to answer the questions. Also explain that the tick after each question means yes and the cross means no.
- Do the first question together. Point and say 'Are the monkeys brown?' Tell pupils to look at the picture and encourage a volunteer to answer 'Yes, they are' or 'No, they aren't'.
- Do the rest of the questions together as a class.
- Go to the next section and check their punctuation.

Homework

AUDIO TRANSCRIPTS FOR THE LISTENING EXERCISES

UNIT 12 GOODBYE (page 132)

LISTENING

14 Mark is telling Mrs Hill about the people in his family and what they did in their free time, yesterday.

What did each person do? Listen and write a letter in each box. There is one example. 🎧 CD2, track 26

Woman: Hello, Mark. Did you enjoy your day yesterday? It was a holiday.

Boy: Yes, I did, Mrs Hill. But it's nice to be back in my quiet classroom again. My mum played loud pop music all day yesterday!

She loves listening to music.

PAUSE 00'03"

Narrator: Can you see the letter H? This is an example. Now you listen and write a letter in each box.

PAUSE 00'03"

Narrator: One

Woman: What about your dad? Did he listen to music, too?

Boy: No. My dad went to see a basketball game with his friends.

Woman: I like basketball, too.

Boy: I prefer badminton!

PAUSE 00'05"

Narrator: Two

Woman: What else did your family do yesterday?

Boy: Let me think. Oh, my sister went to her dance class.

Woman: Does she like dancing?

Boy: Yes, she does. She loves it. She's very good at ballet.

Woman: That's great to hear.

PAUSE 00'05"

Narrator: Three

Woman: What about your brother?

Boy: Ben? He painted a picture yesterday. He likes painting.

Woman: What was the picture of?

Boy: The moon and lots of stars.

Woman: That sounds lovely!

PAUSE 00'05"

Narrator: Four

Woman: Was anyone else from your family at your house yesterday?

Boy: Yes, my aunt Mary was there, too.

Woman: And what did she do?

Boy: Well, she made a cake. She loves making cakes, and they're always delicious.

I like cakes!

PAUSE 00'05"

Narrator: Five

Woman: What about your uncle?

Boy: Uncle Jim? He took my cousin to an ice hockey game.

Woman: Didn't you want to go to the ice hockey game with them?

Boy: No, I didn't. I wanted to help Aunt Mary make her cake. I got a big slice for helping her!

PAUSE 00'05"

Narrator: Now listen again.
