Crossing Cultures explores aspects and traditions of the English-Speaking World.

It contains 50 lessons divided into 5 macro areas: School Life and Education, People and Lifestyles, Sport and Leisure, History and Traditions, The World We Live in.

Main features

- > Profiles: facts about countries from the English-Speaking World
- > Flexible learning paths and cross-curricular activities
- > A range of approaches: from traditional to innovative CLIL activities
- > Activities for exam preparation
- > Graded progression of both contents and skills
- > 2 Audio CD-ROMs for consolidation and extension, with Internet links

Teacher's Book

The Teacher's Book contains the linguistic and communicative aims of every lesson, indications for the lesson plan with cultural and vocabulary extensions; the answers to the exercises; audio scripts; further extension and revision activity suggestions; alternative shorter or longer lesson plans as well as cross-curricula ideas; tests; detailed information on how to use the recommended websites.

The activities in the Audio CD-ROMs have been created to maximise the sections called Working With Texts and ESW FILES. The student will find extra texts relevant to the macro-topic dealt with in the book, complete with comprehension activities. Furthermore, the student can practise the skill of writing answering questionnaires and writing summaries on a computer. A series of interactive activities involving maps and images allows the student to consolidate geographic and cultural knowledge about countries where English is spoken.
