SIG SOOKS

A collection of stories in large format, forming part of a course specially designed for teaching English in primary schools.

Amusing stories and characters children can easily relate to. Language particularly use out classroom activities. A recording of the text of each story and a song.

Each title in this series consists of:

- A large-format book for the teacher.
- A book in electronic format for projection on an IWB.
- Teacher's guide with reinforcement activities, games, flash cards, photocopiable material and an audio CD.
- Book in small format for the pupils. These small-format books are intended to be used for "reading along" in the classroom or for reading at home. As well as illustrations of scenes from the story, they contain several pages of additional drawing and colouring activities.
- Audio CD This contains a recording of the stories and of the songs in each story.

Teacher's guide

The teacher's guide contains examples of activities that can be performed in class using the Big Books.

At the end of each book are a number of photocopiable pages to be used in the various activities related to the stories. These pages contain:

Flash cards

With the main characters and objects presented in the stories.

Masks

Of all the characters. These can be used in dramatic performances of the stories

This series aims to teach mathematics through the direct observation of reality. Thus, the curricular components of the course are presented in narrative situations that are either familiar or wholly imaginary.

The problems confronting the characters in the stories require pupils constantly to use their powers of observation, to measure, to count, to find solutions – and thereby, in a spirit of playfulness, to acquire the rudiments of mathematics.

The texts – clear, concise and written in easily comprehensible English – are reinforced by a wealth of lively illustrations, photographs, diagrams and tables. Further backup and testing material is available from our website.

Arts and Crafts | Primary School

"I'm an artist " a multi-sensorial approach to learning.

A learning process is much more complete if the experience stimulates different senses.

"I'm an artist" reaches different learners by offering a wide variety of techniques and materials to explore.

Students can discover and develop through tactile experiences like moulding and decorating with clay, plasticine and collage materials.

An auditive activity combines music and painting as students are inspired to create their own representation of the seasons.

Through visual resources, students are encouraged to develop an appreciation of form, colour, proportion, distribution and style.

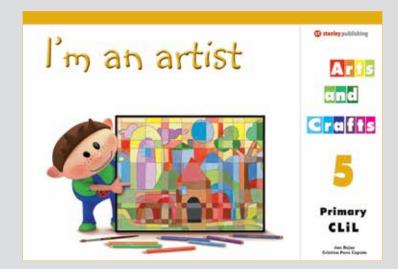

"I'm an artist " a cross-curricular approach to learning.

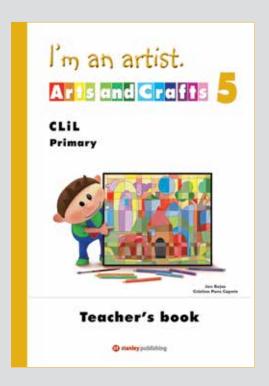

The units are topic-based and follow a natural progression of content and level.

The activities cater to different learning needs and cover different learning areas.

Science | Primary School

Natural and Social Sciences

Discovering Science is a new course designed for schools engaging in bilingual education at primary level. The course, entirely in English, centres on the study of the environment. A thoroughly modern method, it develops pupils' interest in environmental issues while simultaneously allowing them to take their first steps in English.

Discovering Science is a practical and flexible teaching tool. It can easily be adapted to different circumstances, requirements, schedules and teaching areas, as well, of course, as to the specific needs of the pupils.

Its activities, based on the latest research into TPR (total physical response) and multiple intelligences, are both enjoyable and effective, placing Discovering Science in the forefront of such courses for children.

2018

Extra activities These activities are optional and are useful to extend a short lesson, to give fast-finishers something else to do or to help those students with difficulties, reinforce the topic.

A complete method

This method offers a balance between theory and practice.

It introduces and develops the contents of: history, culture, geography and natural/social sciences, in a bilingual environment, starting off from previous knowledge, and the boys and girls' experiences.

The lessons are structured around each of the learning areas.

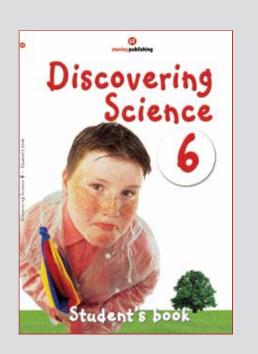

A practical method

Due to its flexibility, this method can be adapted to different criteria, requirements, schedules, school space and the special needs of students.

The design of the activities is based on our experience in the classroom. The activities are easy to use and they demonstrate how efficient our method is in getting class

The lesson structure promotes good habits and routines in a positive learning environment. The space and the groups vary according to the activities.

READERS

Graded readers | Stories for thinking students

Iqbal's Way

Themes for reflection and discussion: child slavery in the world today, the effects of globalization, human rights, how one individual can make a difference.

Series of graded readers specially designed for young people who want to think for themselves - in English!

Four levels of difficulty, corresponding to the first, second, third and fourth years of the E.S.O. syllabus and employing a basic vocabulary of 600, 1000, 1500 and 2000 words.

Original stories with a small number of main characters and strong narratives guaranteed to keep readers hooked from beginning to end.

Each story dramatises social and moral themes to encourage pupils to really "think in English" and to inspire classroom discussion. Themes range from bullying at school and teenage drug abuse to international terrorism and the war in Iraq.

Each volume contains a full range of grammar, vocabulary and comprehension exercises as well as an extensive glossary of difficult words.

Tell the world

People saw the Swedish documentary not only in Sweden but in many other countries of the world — in England, in Germany, in France, in the United States. Everywhere people saw it, it made a strong impression. Many people thought that slavery ended in the 19th century. The film showed them that it still existed. The only difference between 19th century slavery and modern slavery was that now slaves were cheaper than ever before. In 19th century America, a slave cost at least $1,000. At the end of the 20th century, a slave like Iqbal cost less than $25.

When they saw who was making the beautiful carpets in their homes, many people didn't want to buy them any more. As a result of the film, sales of Pakistani

TESTS

English Tests | Graded Multiple-Choice

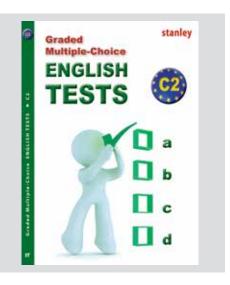

A six-book series. Each book corresponds to a level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages – A1 (elementary), A2 (post-elementary),

B1 (pre-intermediate), B2 (intermediate), C1 (early advanced), and C2 (advanced) – and contains twelve multiple-choice tests, each test consisting of fifty questions. Mainly, the tests examine a student's knowledge of grammatical structures, but lexical items, such as common idioms, collocations, phrasal verbs and "false friends" are also tested, increasingly from intermediate level onwards.

A1 to C2

englishtests app is also available www.stanleypublishing.es The twelve 30-minute tests in each book are graded by difficulty and can be easily administered and corrected. But these are not simply tests to determine a student's knowledge of grammar and vocabulary. They are designed also to be used as valuable teaching tools in their own right, permitting teachers and students to review the most common structures and difficulties of English and to monitor their progress as they go.

Reference | Exercises

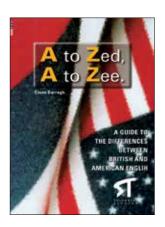

SPEAK ENGLISH LIKE AN AMERICAN (+CD)

What's the secret to speaking English fluently? It's mastery of those tricky idioms and phrases that are so common in English. And learning these idioms and phrases will not only help ypu speak better, it'll help ypu understand Americans better!

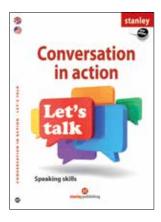

A TO ZED, A TO ZEE

This book is intended for Americans and Britons who want to understand each other better, and for foreign students of either American or British English who want to familiarise (or familiarize) themselves with the other main variety of the language.

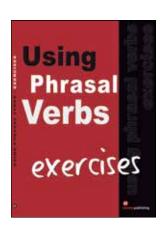

CONVERSATION IN ACTION

Conversation in Action contains 50 different topics of conversation with corresponding questions, diagrams and texts accompanied by a glossary.

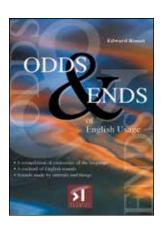

USING PHRASAL VERBS - EXERCISES

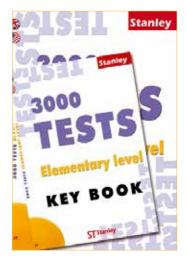

A book of exercises with phrasal verbs. Very appropriate for advanced students.

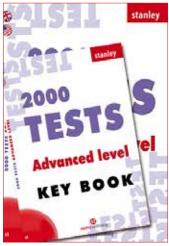

ODDS & ENDS

Words that rhyme although their spelling is quite different. Words of similar derivation but with different meanings. Homophones, homographs homonyms.

3000 TESTS ELEMENTARY LEVEL

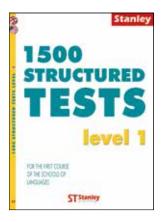

Devised as an easy self-checking guide of the language level each student acquires, it is a valuable tool for the preparation of exams.

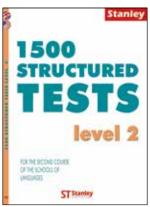

2000 TESTS ADVANCED LEVEL

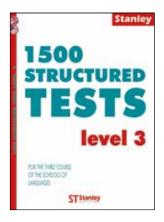

Essential for advanced students.

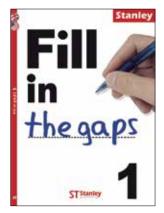

1500 STRUCTURED TESTS

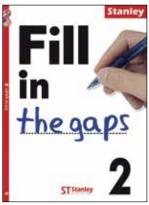

These multiple choice questions have been structured in such a way that any student can start using them from the very first day. Each page deals with a different grammar structure with 40 examples in each one.

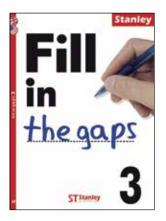

FILL IN THE GAPS

A three-book series which has been designed as complementary exercises to any textbook. The student is asked to fill in gaps with a noun, preposition, adverb, adjective or verb.
